

We've selected some simple, locally inspired dishes for you to self cater during your trip. The grocery list provided below includes everything you will need to make these dishes, and assumes that most condo accommodations will have basics like salt, pepper and olive oil.

We've divided the list into recipes in case you choose to make some recipes and not others, or to dine out entirely rather than cooking at all.

STAPLES

- 2 sticks of butter
- Milk
- Cream for coffee
- Ground coffee - look for 100% Kona (Blue Sky Kona Estates, Kauai Coffee Co, Koa Coffee Estate)
- Tea bags

GRILLED FISH DINNER

- 1 pineapple
- 1 bunch green onions
- 1 green pepper
- 1 bunch fresh cilantro
- 1 lime
- 2+ cobs of corn
- 2-3 medium zucchinis
- Dessert to go with grilled fish dinner

* Note: You will purchase fresh fish the day of

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

- 1 package pancake mix (Hula Girl, Aloha Sunset Pancake Mix, Mulvadi are Maui favorites)
- Coconut syrup
- Pint of Strawberries
- 2 bananas

DRINKS

- Bottled waters for beach/road trips
- Juice, pop or other cold drinks
- Wine or alcohol

* Note: Don't forget BYOB for the O'o Farms lunch

Grocery List

BREAKFAST WRAPS WITH EXTRAS

- Dozen eggs
- Small package ham or bacon
- 1 red or green pepper
- 1 small Maui onion
- Small block cheddar cheese (or pre-shredded)
- 1 package 8" tortillas

* Note: Use pineapple left from fish salsa recipe

ADDITIONAL BREAKFASTS

If you're decide to make the Hawaiian Breakfast Wraps, you will have leftover eggs. Feel free to plan for a two more egg breakfasts with, toast, bacon or buy what ever else suits your fancy. Add your own items below.

-
-
-
-
-
-

For your sunrise trip to the Haleakala Crater, you will want to get some easy breakfast items like granola bars, fruit or other items that you can eat on the go.

-
-
-
-
-
-

SNACKS

-
-
-
-
-
-